No. 505.

Office of the Deputy Commissioner and President, Chitaldrug District

Dated Chitaldrug 24th June 1913.

From,

V. R. Jyagaraja Iyer, Esquire, M.A.,
Offg: Deputy Commissioner and President,
Chitaldrug.

To,

K. R. Sreenivasa Iyengar, Esquire, M.A.,
Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments,
Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that A. P. Venkatacha Sanitary Inspector on frontier plague duty in — Chellakere and Hiriyur Taluks, drew his pay and horse allowance when he was on privilege leave in May 1912. The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, while taking objection to the payment of horse allowance during the period on the ground that he is not entitled to the same as Sanitary Inspectors are not included in the list of Officers enumerated in article 180 of the Mysore Service Regulations, has asked the Treasury Officers to recover the horse allowance paid to the Official.

2. So far as the strict letter of the article referred to above goes, the Comptroller's objection holds holds good. But the object with which Sanitary and Work Inspectors are required to maintain horses being analogous to that of other officials mentioned in article 180 such as Tank Inspectors Tahsik Maistries Etc, it seems fair that the concession of drawing allowance during privilege leave as laid down in the Service Regulation should be extended to the former class of officials also, as these cannot be expected to dispose of their animals when going on privilege leave.

3. For the fore-going reasons, I am of opinion that article 180 requires amendment in the way of the addition of the class of officials referred to above. I may note that the article was amended in the Case of Sheikdars in August 1912.

4. The officials in question had maintained a horse during his absence on privilege leave and no substitute had been entertained. The Comptroller may therefore be requested to waive the objection taken by him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

Dy. Deputy Commissioner &
President, Cuttalong District
